AUTO FERRY RATES SLASHED

TWELVE DEAD, $10,000,000 DAMAGE IN SANTA BARBARA EARTHQUAKES

RAIL BOARD RULING HITS S.P. FERRIES

ORDER REDUCES CHARGE ON PASSENGER AUTOMOBILES FROM $1.05 TO 60 CENTS

Drastic reductions in rates charged on automobile ferries between San Francisco and East Bay points by the Southern Pacific company were ordered in a decision by the State Railroad Commission yesterday.

Rates on passenger automobiles will be reduced from $1.05, the present charge to 60 cents under yesterday's ruling. The charge per passenger drops from eight cents to five cents. Slashes approximately as severe were ordered on all other classes of automobile ferry service.

In making its decision the commission allowed the Southern Pacific company only 30 per cent of the valuation it claimed on the properties operated in automobile ferry service.

The new rates ordered by the commission follow:

Class of Vehicles	Old Rate	New Rate
Automobiles	$1.05	60c
Passengers	.08	5c
Auto with trailer	1.90	1.10
Trucks (4,000 lbs.)	1.95	.75
Trucks with trailer	1.90	1.50
Motorcycle	.25	.20
Motorcycle with side car	.70	.40

In moving two months ago for a reduction in rates on automobile ferry service, the railroad commission presented figures to show that the Southern Pacific company was making an excessive profit on its investment. Company officials, opposing the reduction, contended that the commission should not consider only that property in actual ferry service for rate-making purposes.

On the basis of all classes of ferry service and connecting electric trains, the company contended, present rates gave virtually no profit at all.

The company set up a valuation of $10,313,000 on its properties in automobile ferry service. This figure, the commission was told was computed upon a cost of reproduction basis.

The commission's engineers testified that the auto ferry equipment cost $4,492,175 new, and charged off sufficient depreciation to bring the valuation down to $3,639,764. The new rates are calculated on the basis of permitting the company to earn a fair return on this figure.

The principal reduction made in the company's valuation was on real estate at the Oakland pier. A value of nearly $8,000,000 was claimed for these holdings and this figure drastically cut.

Richmond Woman Petitions to Adopt Own Child

For the first time in the history of Contra Costa courts and one of the few instances of like nature in the state, a mother petitioned the Superior Court Monday for an order permitting her to adopt her own child.

The petitioner is Vera C. Clark, 138 Twenty-eighth street, Richmond, and the child which she seeks to adopt, her own, is the adopted child of Earle J. and Jennie May Wilsey. The Wilseys adopted little Maxine Wilsey some years ago but when their martial bark foundered last week, the real mother of the child, with the consent of the foster parents, petitioned for her adoption.

Active Thieves Raid Motorists

Police department was busy over the week end investigation reports of automobile thefts.

The automobile of N. C. Franklin of Oakland, that was stolen from the Santa Fe Parking place, was recovered at Stege, stripped of all accessories.

A tire was removed from an automobile belonging to F. Milligan, according to police reports.

M. W. Leake, 1300 Bissell avenue, left a tire he was changing in front of his house, and when he returned a few minutes later it was gone.

While her machine was parked at Eighth and Macdonald, a tire was stolen, according to Mrs. Pauly of Petaluma.

Fire Damages Asphalt Plant

A shed burned to the ground, and some oil and asphalt tanks were threatened, when a fire broke out at the asphalt plant in San Pablo Sunday after an oil burner under the boiler back fired. Standard Oil foamite tanks put out the fire before much damage could be caused.

The fire department quickly put out a fire in a shed in the rear of an auto wrecking shop at Bay View and San Pablo avenue on Sunday.

Merchants Will Adjourn For July

The Richmond Merchant's association will hold no more meetings, until August, according to Mrs. Marie Macdonald Jensen, secretary. The reason for the suspending of meetings of the association is that many of the merchants are enjoying their summer vacations, and a number of them are attending the education class now being conducted in this city. Mrs. Jensen stated that the Merchants would probably resume their meeting during the first week of August.

Old Roma Hotel At the Point to Be Re-Modelled

Permit to remodel the Roma hotel at 117-125 Standard avenue was granted to Joe Mattucci last night by the city council. Mattucci plans to change the old bar room into the form of a shop or store room and alter the front of the building and change the interior to comply with the state housing act. The state housing commission has refused to allow the operation of the building until the changes are made.

It was stated by City Engineer Hoffman and Manager McVittie, that the building is in the way of the proposed widening of Standard avenue, but that the widening work will cut off the east side of the building and move it back and will not interfere with the proposed alterations. It was stated Mattucci thoroughly understands the widening proposals.

Council to Attend Fourth Celebration At Point Richmond

The West Side Progressive Association last night, invited the city council to attend a Fourth of July celebration to be held at Kozzy Kove next Saturday, and Mayor Plate, accepting on behalf of the council, requested as many members as could possibly do so to attend.

C. M. Patten, in delivering the invitation, said the West Side Progressive Association stood solidly in support of the council and its actions and declared they would feel significantly honored to have the members attend the celebration.

"Drydock" Smith Estimates Cost of Wharf Here

Plans for Municipal wharf No. 2, at the head of the Richmond inner channel, were presented to the city council last night by S. F. B. "Drydock" Smith, noted marine engineer, and were referred to City Manager McVittie and City Engineer Hoffman, to prepare for bids to be ordered next week.

As prepared by Smith the estimated cost of the wharf is $73,379, trestle and approach, $7,604; track work, $3,258; total $84,241, including a five per cent contingency allowance for unforeseen expenditures. Money available for the work, exclusive of the dredging contract that has already been awarded, is around $1,000, leaving about $3,000 to be raised or eliminated.

McVittie and Hoffman will have the plans ready for action in calling for wharf bids next Monday night. The dredging contract was awarded last week.

Paving Company To Build Corral

Permission to construct a temporary corral at the corner of Commercial and Florida avenues for the convenience of 40 horses to be used in street improvement work in the Wall addition, was granted to the Northern Paving company last night by the city council. The corral will be built under the supervision and conducted under the regulation of the city authorities.

STATEMENTS OF MINISTER CALLED FALSE

DRASTIC ACTION SUGGESTED TO CITY COUNCIL AGAINST REV. M. HARLAN GREENLEE

Suggestions that Rev. Milton Harlan Greenlee be invited to visit the city council and make an apology for unfavorable reflections cast upon that body, that he be sued for criminal libel and that any man who would say and publish such things about the city council that he had said and caused to be published should be "tarred and feathered and rode out of town on a long pole with a nail on the end of it" were among the various things said about the local minister at the meeting of the Richmond city council last night. City Attorney D. J. Hall fired the first broadside in his communication of the retiring member, W. L. Lane. He said in spite of criticism of a few narrow minded bigots the Richmond city council was in the forefront on moral legislation, that they had made a remarkably clean city and that it ill-befits anyone to criticize their actions.

Councilman Lane Bids Farewell to Council Members

Bidding good-bye to the city council and his fellow members last night, Councilman W. L. Lane said that 24 1/2 years ago he had saluted his commanding officer on the deck of a battleship and had said, "My Term has expired, I now repeat this to the city council," he continued.

Lane said his 12 years as a member of the city council had been pleasant ones, he had enjoyed them and the associations of the council members and friends. He commended the city for having an exceptionally good personnel of employees, fire and police departments, he said, are above par, and the progress of the city in the past 12 years had been marvelous.

He said he had at all times tried to do the best he could for the public interest as far as he could judge it had made some mistakes, no doubt, but they had been unintentional. He said he had no feeling of regret at leaving the council except for the loss of the companionship of his fellowmembers.

He told the councilmembers that they have big work ahead of them, but as he takes his place in the audience from now on he will do it with a feeling of confidence that the members know how to take care of big things.

Mayor J. H. Plate replied with the regrets of the council and Councilman E. J. Garrard commended Lane on his splendid co-operation, during and after Garrard was mayor. Garrard and Lane have served side by side as councilmembers for 12 years and he congratulated Lane on his good work.

City Attorney D. J. Hall, said he also had been associated with Councilman Lane for the past 12 years and he too, commended the retiring councilman and declared he was always on the right side and on the side of morality "in spite of the criticism of a few narrow bigots."

With a last few words of farewell, in which he thanked the council members for their kind regards, Mr. Lane withdrew from the chamber, "stepping down and out" as a member of the council. His place will be taken next week by John I. Collins.

SPECIAL FERRY BOAT SCHEDULE FOR THE FOURTH

There's to be a big do-in' up country on the Fourth of July. Motorists who are looking for an ideal place to spend the "Fourth" have several treats in store for them.

An old fashioned "Fourth" will be staged at St. Helena this year. Also there will be a "Days of '49" celebration at Grass Valley. For several weeks the made citizens of Grass Valley have been cultivating rare growths of pioneer herbs to lend the affair color.

Another "rip-roaring" celebration is planned for Jackson, Ariz. county.

Alturas will hold its 20th annual round-up during the days of July 2, 4, and 5th.

For the convenience of late travelers the Kootenai-Valejo ferries will maintain an all night boat service Friday; Saturday service until 1 a. m. or later if necessary and Sunday all night service.

The location at 333 Elventh street is now being occupied by Emmett Smyth, local Jewett automobile dealer. Smyth was formerly on Twenty-second street, but desired a more central and larger location for his increasing business so decided to move down-town.

Police expressed the belief that at least two persons were injured by the earthquake took its greatest toll, which razed the business portion of the city and did property damage estimated at $10,000,000.

LEARNING MATRIMONY

Boston University has started a class in matrimony, with 40 girls attending. There are lectures by a distinguished graduate who is also a housewife and the mother of three children, and hence presumably skilled in combining theory and practice. The views expressed are said to be modern. That is to be expected. Without modern views, it would hardly occur to anyone to start a class in this subject.

Old-fashioned folk may smile, superiorly or humorously, as the mood takes them; but they needn't do either. Matrimony is no reason for believing that a large part of it cannot be taught, like other matters of importance, to young people capable of instruction instead of leaving everything to be learned by hard experience.

The class referred to aims to analyze and solve various problems of marriage beforehand. That is matrimonial engineering. It teaches the girls that marriage involves other things than romance and roses. Every married couple knows this; but the fact has been strangely ignored in most of the novels formerly regarded as text books in such matters.

COL. HOUSE AGAIN

Colonel Edwin M. House, whose responsibility for some of President Wilson's most serious errors at the peace conference was recognized by Mr. Wilson through the exclusion of Mr. House from the late President's friendship, has come to light again with an article in Collier's in which he declares that the United States is "blocking the road to peace," presumably to peace in Europe, since we have peace and no fear of war in this hemisphere. We have "lost moral prestige in the eyes of the world because of our selfish timidity." The European powers want peace, but we refuse to let them have it, thinks Colonel House. Probably no more stupid and unjust accusation was ever made against this country than the one frequently on the lips of our Europeanized internationalists, to the effect that the attitude of the United States toward Europe has been selfish, narrow and ignorant, because, forsooth, we have not brought peace to a continent upon which a dozen wars, inspired by selfishness and greed, have been staged since America turned to the ways of peace at the close of the World war. We are responsible for the lack of peace and the will to peace in Europe because we do not supply it. Could inverted logic go further?

DEMOCRATIC PUBLIC SCHOOLS

One of the greatest issues before the American people is whether or not public school system shall remain democratic, or whether it shall be used more and more in the direction of equipping a professional class.

The newspapers are full of protests that high schools, colleges and universities emphasize too much academic and professional equipment, when about nine-tenths of the citizenry of Our Country must work for a living in industries, in homes and on farms.

A remarkable union high school in California—the San Mateo-Burlingame district—is attracting wide attention of educators by giving employment to more than half the high school boys outside of school hours at good wages, doing all the work of maintaining the school plant.

For about 15 years, several hundred high school boys have built new buildings, maintained all repairs and kept the grounds in a model condition—doing actual manual labor and learning the ordinary trades that make community life possible—Principal Glasscock has accomplished this and the community likes it.

His ideal is a useful contented self-respecting citizen, who can earn an honest living build a home and support himself and family.

CAPITALIZING INVESTMENT OF TAXES

Bus line raising money by sale of securities, published in a prospectus during the past year the following statement:

"Motor transportation with fast freight service inherits all the advantages of the railroads without their heavy first investment. The motor transportation lines, using the highways already built, do not have to buy right of way. There are no ties, no rails to lay, no grading to do, no hills to cut down, no valleys to fill, no bridges or trestles to erect."

Right of way, grading, cutting down hills, filling valleys, building bridges, laying pavement and annual repairs on highways are all paid for by taxpayer.

From standpoint of fairness to interurban electric lines and railroads the present system of motor bus and truck taxation by the state is entirely inadequate.

The Barrel Silhouette May Be the Next Outline of Fashion.

VARIOUS animate and inanimate objects have lent their names to the outlines chosen by fashion as suitable for the female form in times gone by. The meal bag, the pencil, the hour glass, the kangaroo, the string bean, have all been thus honored. Now we hear rumors of a barrel silhouette. Experts in such matters speak of it guardedly. There are frocks that show this new treatment, but whether or not they represent just an interesting side-step of fashion, or prognosticate a really definite departure in the fashion, it is hard to say.

One interesting thing about this new barrel silhouette is that it is quite different from the outline produced by the shoulder flare, or by the fullness placed at the back below the hips. Each one of these three outlines may have some follows interesting possibilities. For there is sufficient fullness about this type of coat to make it suitable to wear over three dresses of various descriptions.

With frocks or wraps of this description we would have a "normal" or slightly flared waistline, with a not too abrupt flare over the hips. From the distended hip outline to the hem of the skirt hangs a most straight, or shows a tendency to round out a little and then in toward the hem. There is a subtle difference between this outline and that of the other bountiful outlines to which we have been treated within the past few years.

The sketch shows an interesting example of this new fashion, developed in a black taffeta coat lined in gray.

TRIMMING YOUR OWN HAT

SOME of the shops sell lengths of machine ready to wrap around the big straw hat. One end of the machine is looped and wired into a big chou or rosette. The machine is then wrapped once or twice around the crown of the hat, a few stitches are taken to hold the chou in place, and lo! your hat is trimmed—or re-trimmed. If an old hat is the foundation of this arrangement.

Another trick is to buy one of the china ornaments for hats and fasten it on the crown of a straw or felt hat. These ornaments are decidedly smart. So, too, are lacquered metal ornaments. Sometimes the lacquered ornaments are flowers—poppies or roses in good strong shades of yellow and red.

You can produce charming flowers that look lacquered by painting ordinary cotton artificial flowers with metal sealing wax. These are as fresh and smart as you can imagine.

PUREE OF CUCUMBERS

Cut in pieces three or four very large cucumbers and let stew in a pint of veal stock with two tablespoons of scraped onion until quite soft and tender. Press through a colander. Prepare the following foundation for the puree. Cook one-half an onion in three tablespoons of butter until brown, then add six tablespoons of flour, one teaspoon of tomato catsup, one-half a teaspoon of mixed, dried herbs, and two cups of well-seasoned brown stock; then add the sifted cucumbers, and when the whole boils stir in two eggs, well beaten, with one-half cup of cream. Stir rapidly over the fire for a moment until eggs are barely set, then pour into the tureen and serve with croutons.

This announcement was made at the meeting of Echipse Lodge, held at Richmond hall last night. Besides preparations for the installation, only regular business was transacted at the session. Noble Grand R. B. Hamilton was the presiding officer.

Veterans Account To City for Hall Furnishing Money

Veterans organizations and auxiliaries represented by the Richmond Veterans Memorial building committee, in a communication to the city council last night, expressed their thanks and appreciation to the city for assistance in furnishing the building.

The communication, signed by W. A. Vickory, chairman, carried a statement showing the city had appropriated $2,048 for the furnishings, expenditures had amounted to $2,047.78, leaving a balance on hand of 22 cents. The letter was placed on file.

Milk Prices Here Are Explained to Council Members

Milk prices in Richmond were explained to the city council last night by Messrs. Silvera and Skow, of the local Milk Dealers Association, and by Attorney Hall W. Sanders, representing the milk dealers. It was brought out that the charge by delivery and by merchants is the same, 44 cents a quart, with a graded scale of reduction in accordance with the number of quarts ordered. It was shown by reliable figures that the cost of production is above 12 cents per quart.

The charge of 10 cents for the same milk delivered to patrons in El Cerrito and Alameda county points was satisfactory explained as due to the milk war that has been going on in Alameda county for over a year. Local dealers are delivering this milk at less than cost in order to compete with the Alameda dealers and hold their trade until such a time as the war may be settled and they can sell for a profit. Explanation of the milk prices was caused by complaints that had been made to Councilman Black relative to the difference in prices. The council had appointed a committee to look into the matter.

RICHMOND BUILDING SOLD FOR $32,500

Salvation Army Drive For Funds Opens Here Today

The Richmond branch of the Salvation Army opens its 1925 fund campaign today, with the amount to be raised here set at $5,000. These funds are to be used in local relief work, and in the maintenance of the State Rescue Hospital of the Salvation Army at Oakland and the state children's orphanage of the Salvation Army at Lytton Springs.

It is announced that most of the funds will be kept in Richmond to maintain local relief and maintenance work. The advisory board hopes that every citizen of Richmond and the outlying community will do their share in aiding this worthy cause. Donations can be paid to certified solicitors who will call at door or sent direct to any of the local banks.

The citizens advisory board which is aiding in putting over the appeal, is composed of T. H. Delap, chairman; Larkin J. Younce and E. M. Downer, associate treasurers; Judge D. J. Hall, A. C. Paris, E. J. Gar-

RELIEF IS PROPOSED.

William Gibbs McAdoo, former secretary of the treasury, tonight suggested that the state of California immediately provide a revolving loan of $250,000 to assist in the rebuilding of the business portion of the city.

It is feared that there are more dead in the ruins of the San Marcos building.

Many buildings badly wrecked by the quake were in a tottering condition and precautions were being taken to prevent additional casualties from their fall.

With the first tremor which struck the city at 6:45 a. m., the ten story San Marcos building collapsed. The east wing of the exclusive Arlington hotel fell in. Side walls and the rear of the new five-story California hotel fell outward, leaving guest rooms exposed.

BUILDINGS CRUMBLE.

The Carillo House, along the ocean front, split in two.

Walls and part of the roof of the Carillo hotel, housing 300 guests, collapsed.

Both towers toppled over at the historic Santa Barbara Mission.

The jail, court house, public library and hall were badly damaged.

Other buildings either partly or entirely destroyed include:

Hotels damaged:

The Barbara, the Virginia, the Del Mar, Foundlings, El Camino Real, Angelus, Savoy and Grand.

Churches:

The Catholic Churches of Our Lady of Sorrows and St. Anthony's, the Baptist, Methodist and Episcopal.

Buildings:

The majority almost completely destroyed:

The Knights of Columbus building; the American Legion building; the San Marcos building; Pythian building; Packard Automobile building; First National Bank; Pacific South-west Bank and the Potter Theatre building.

SEA WALL DAMAGED.

The great sea wall, costing $400,000 was cracked.

St. Vincent's Orphanage, housing 150 children, was badly damaged.

None was hurt, attendants removing all the children to safety.

The county hospital, two miles out of the city, was virtually razed but all patients were carried to safety.

Francis hospital, which is practically destroyed.

The city and county jails were both demolished.

Prisoners in both institutions were given their liberty—the police explained several nurses and patients suffered minor injuries, fleeing from St. Vincent's there was nothing else to do with the jails destroyed.

There was not a single structure in the two-mile length of the main street which escaped damage. Many lay in ruins.

VACATION IN MOUNTAINS

Miss Thelma Vestal and Miss Wilma Milnes, left last night by train for the Lake Tahoe region, where they will make up a party of eight, who will spend the next four weeks in the Sierra Nevada.

"Your Best Friend" Mother Love Story At Wesley Church

"Your Best Friend," the latest Warner Brothers' production starting Vera Gordon, comes to the Wesley Methodist church, corner Ninth street and Nevins avenue, Friday evening. In this story Miss Gordon is said to have been afforded another opportunity to reveal her ability as a portrayal of mother roles.

An excellent cast of players will be seen in support of Miss Gordon. These include Bebe Daniels as the gay, carefree society girl, Harry Benham, in the role of the faithful son, Beth Mason, as the socially ambitious mother of Miss Bennett, Stanley Price as the wayward son of Miss Gordon, and Dore Davidson, as the kindly old bookkeeper.

Briefly, the story of "Your Best Friend" deals with a mother who gives and loves and sympathizes with her two sons and never for a moment misunderstands them. The mother, Mrs. Meyers, a widow, is suddenly introduced by her son to her daughter-in-law. With open arms she goes to greet her, but she discovers a cold, snobbish daughter-in-law who ridicules her modestly furnished home.

Now Mr. Meyer's son, Robert, is ambitiously seeking the nomination for District Attorney. When the black sheep member of the family confesses that he has stolen a bank's funds the mother gives up her money and pawn her jewels in order to save the family name. But her daughter-in-law scoffs at the idea of cutting down expenses.

Mrs. Meyers, however, goes back to her former home. She is visited by her daughter-in-law, who is accompanied by her mother, and during their stay the house is quarantined on account of smallpox. Both women are compelled to do menial household tasks, and in the days that follow a closer bond of understanding comes over them and they realize their shameful and selfish attitude toward their best friend.

WORD OF DEATH RECEIVED

Mrs. J. M. Kenney, passed away at her home at Gravelle, Ark., Sunday evening, according to word received yesterday by Mrs. C. D. Montgomery of Nicholls avenue, and Mrs. W. M. Morse of Burbeck avenue, daughters of the deceased, who was known here, having been a visitor two years ago. Both daughters were with Mrs. Kenney in Arkansas in May, having been called to that place by her illness.

"Crowded Hour" At California Theatre Today

Bebe Daniels in
"The Crowded Hour"
A Paramount Picture

"One crowded hour of glorious life, is worth an age without a name."

From these glorious lines of Sir Walter Scott Paramount has derived the theme for Bebe Daniels' latest starring production, "The Crowded Hour," a screen version of the Selwyn-Pollock stage play, which is the feature at the California theatre, where it will be screened for the last time tonight.

"The Crowded Hour," directed by E. Mason Hopper, is laid in New York City, featuring amateur night on the Bowery, back-stage at the "Follies," a gay night club, the war areas of France and a beautiful garden in a French convalescent home.

Bebe plays pretty Peggy Laurence, a young girl who as an idea she would like to be an actress. Her partner is Matt Wilde, played by T. Roy Barnes, who has a leading role with Kenneth Harlan in the supporting cast of the production. Lady Luck plays right into her hands, for in the audience at the Bowery theatre where she goes on amateur night is young Billy Laidlaw, wealthy engineer, who sees talent in the girl and brings her to the notice of a Broadway producer. It is but a matter of weeks until she is a "Follies" headliner.

And all this time young Laidlaw sees Peggy nightly. A mutual love affair springs up between the two, even though Billy is already married. The scenes that follow carry the pair to France—Bebe as a "Y" entertainer. It is here she finally realizes how really selfish she has been and the picture closes with her

"Woman on Jury" At The Richmond

A splendid picture, and one that will appeal strongly to all types of theatre-goers will be screen for the last time tonight at the Richmond theatre. It is "The Woman on the Jury," a First National picture directed by Harry O. Hoyt from the stage play by Bernard K. Burns, which ran for more than a year on Broadway.

In addition to one of the most virile stories that have ever found their way to the screen, "The Woman on the Jury" is especially noteworthy for the remarkable cast which interprets the tale. Probably never before has such an assemblage of histrionic talent been found together in one production.

At the head of the cast is Sylvia Preamer, whose beauty and talent are making her more popular daily. The villain of the tale is Lew Cody, a specialist along that line who has little competition, and the hero is Frank Mayo, who has been a star in his own right.

"The Woman on the Jury" is a fascinating picture of life, realistically mirrored, tensely dramatic and a distinct credit to the motion picture industry.

Other features on the same program include St. John's funniest comedy "Stupid But Brave" will also be screened.

Cheek Arrests And Roth Fines Many Motorists

The following motorists were arrested by County Traffic Officer R. R. Cheek and fined by Justice John Roth yesterday:

E. F. Prescott, San Francisco, $25; W. N. Mayton, Pasadena, $15; C. M. Rice, San Francisco, $10; E. E. Hyatt, Sacramento, $25; S. E. Briggs, Burlingame, $10; H. L. Searle, Crockett, $10; W. J. Jessup, Berkeley, $10. Cheek also cited E. C. Kinsely, on a charge of speeding and W. E. Frank, on a charge of reckless driving, to appear before Justice of the Peace A. H. MacKinnon on July 14. The case of Peter Allinio, of 61 Cerrito, charged of traveling 40 miles an hour, was dismissed. Allinio is used to traveling through the air at a much faster pace.

MISSIONARY PAGEANT AT BAPTIST MEET

Circle No. 3, of the Baptist Missionary Society of the First Baptist church, presented a splendid pageant at the Sunday evening church services.

Rev. E. W. Watson, minister in the Mexican mission here, which is sponsored by the First Baptist church, was the first speaker of the evening, and he introduced Rev. R. E. Brown, who is superintendent of missionary work among the Mexicans for the American Baptist Missionary society. He told of his work and how it had progressed among these people, during the last ten years.

He stated that at this time there are 23 Mexican ministers of the Baptist faith scattered from Tia Juana to Detroit, Mich. Rev. Brown told of the hardships the Mexicans are said to have to endure from their families and friends when they leave their faith and join the Baptist church. Rev. Brown proved to be an interesting speaker.

The next speaker was Rev. Arturo Parajon, pastor of the Baptist church at Managua, South America, who spoke in Spanish, with Rev. Brown as an interpreter. Rev. Parajon told of how he joined the Baptist church 11 years ago and was driven from his home by his own father, who will not even speak to him now. He went to the Baptist mission in Mexico, and was educated to the ministry, which he now follows.

He stated that there are about 800,000 inhabitants of the country of Nicaragua, and that 800 of them are Baptists. Both Rev. Brown and Parajon are now bound for Seattle to attend the northern Baptist convention which is in session at that city at this time.

After the last talk, the session was turned over to the ladies, who presented the pageant. Mrs. Carl Longenecker started this event off with a fine talk on "The Golden Opportunity Tree." The scene was laid to represent a garden, and the stage was profusely decorated with flowers.

Mrs. R. H. Kinney entered the garden and gave a monologue, frequently interrupted by the singing of "In the Garden" by Mrs. Gideon and Mrs. D. Bowman, with Mrs. Baker at the piano and Maurice Church with the violin.

Mrs. Kinney spoke of planting a small tree, brought to her by the herald of the king, Mrs. Bert Kirkpatrick. Mrs. W. Moore, the recorder of the Book of Life, desired to know why the tree had not grown to a large size, as it had been planted fifty years ago.

Mrs. Kinney explained that the tree represented the Women's Missionary society of the Baptist demonstration, founded 50 years ago, and that from time to time branches had been broken from it. The first was given to the colored people, of which there are 12,000,000 in the United States, and 5,000,000 of them are Baptists. The others were given to the Indians, the Portuguese, the Cubans, the Indians of Alaska, and the inhabitants of the United States islands.

Mrs. Bert Kirkpatrick then presented another tree, in the form of a wooden cross, and this tree was known as the "Tree of Opportunity." The Women's Missionary society expects to raise $500,000 for missionary work during the next two years, and each lady is expected to purchase a leaf from this tree.

Dorothy Kinney and Judith Moore covered this cross with golden paper, and with a beautiful wreath of flowers, as the closing of the ceremonies.

During the evening two members of the Mexican mission sang in Spanish. With Mrs. Baker at the organ, a quartet composed of S. J. Osborne, Floyd French, Randy Mueller and Maurice Church also sang.

Dies of Injury In Auto Wreck

Neil McCordle, foreman of the Pullman shops in Richmond, was killed and Justice of the Peace A. H. MacKinnon of El Cerrito is suffering from nervous shock in an automobile accident in Mitchell canyon when a piece of flying glass from the windshield of Judge MacKinnon's wrecked car severed McCordle's jugular vein causing him to bleed to death before aid could be summoned.

Both Judge MacKinnon and McCordle had boys in the Boy Scout camp at Mitchell canyon and were en route there Sunday afternoon to visit the boys. While traversing the narrow one-way road on which the Scouts had established a highly effective "control" to handle the Sunday traffic, MacKinnon, in some manner lost control of his car and it dashed the machine into a tree. MacKinnon escaped without physical injury.

McCordle was about 45 years of age and leaves a wife, Mrs. Helen McCordle, and one son. He had resided in El Cerrito for a number of years and was one of the most highly respected of the Pullman shops' employees.

The remains were taken to the Guy, Palmer and Ford parlors in Concord and later in the day removed to Oakland for burial.

Justice MacKinnon was taken to his home late Sunday unharmed but a nervous wreck. He is able to be around but is being closely watched by the family physician for fear of a complete breakdown so unnerved is he as a result of the fatal accident.

Statement of

the council members always do the best they know how for the greatest good to the largest number, and pruned the references and comparisons of Rev. Greenlee as distinctly unfair and cowardly.

BRANDED AS ENTRIE

"But we must consider the source it comes from," said Garrard, "and let it drop, although it is so terribly untrue and misplaced that it is discouraging for honest people to be on the council, especially coming as it did from a man who is in a position that should be looked up to."

He said he had always had respect for the church, but if that is the kind of men who are guiding the religious interests of the community, then he would look elsewhere for his guidance.

C. M. Patten, of the West Side Progressive association, suggested Rev. Greenlee be invited to come to the council chamber and make a public apology for his assertions and comparisons. City Attorney Hall declared it might accelerate the clergyman's visit to the council chamber if he were informed that he had violated the criminal libel law of the state and could be prosecuted and given a severe penalty.

SORRY FOR GREENLEE

Councilman George F. Black said the thing that hurts most is the undue publicity given Richmond in outside newspapers. He said it was always little people who thought that their size protected them from injury, and people with no property to be confiscated, who were the most bold. He announced he felt sorry for Greenlee's intelligence and said if the law was invoked against him it might put him in a pitiable condition, and make him pay very dearly.

Mrs. Mattie Chandler, councilmember, and president of the Wesley Ladies aid, challenged any minister, of her own church or any other church, to prove the assertions and comparisons made by Rev. Greenlee. She said it hurt her most because the church must suffer from the minister's assertions.

"They think they are hurting the city council, but they are not," said Mrs. Chandler; "they are hurting the church, and I have the interests of the church fully at heart. We, as members of the city council, are elected by the people to use our best judgment for their interests as we see them, and any man who says in his pulpit that we are controlled by a corporation and a bank, and swayed by money interests, tells an untruth, and I challenge him to prove it."

WORLD WAR AND FEATHER

J. H. Fitzpatrick congratulated the council members on their stand and said it had placed them more solidly in the good opinion of the public than they had ever been before. He had heard many good things said

FUNERAL RITES TODAY

Charles Henry Lee, who passed away on Saturday at his home, 2910 Potrero avenue, will have the last rites held from him at the Bert Curry chapel this afternoon at 2 o'clock, and cremation will follow at the Berkeley crematory. Lee, a sheet metal worker, had resided in this city for twelve years, and is survived by a widow and two children.

How To Be Healthy

By JOHN W. DEEMING

Here is another of the Record Herald's series of articles on health. Any questions will be answered by the author upon address to Box 5, care of this paper. Back numbers of this series may be had on request.

BREATHING

Beginners in the art of breathing who have not yet learned any special exercise may profitably practice deep-breathing when walking to and from work. Take four (4) to six (6) strides during inhalation and five (5) to seven (7) during exhalation. After some practice the number of strides may be considerably augmented. There should always be one or two more strides during exhalation than during inhalation. When the lungs have become still stronger it is an excellent plan to run a few hundred yards and then walk and perform a number of deep breaths which will naturally be very full. Repeat the run and walk with deep breathing several times.

NASAL EXERCISE

The wings of the nose consist of muscles which should be trained so that they are able to move outwards and thereby give freer passage to the air.

For persons that find it difficult to acquire this control of the nostrils I can recommend practice of it before a mirror every time you have a few minutes to spare. Watch for tomorrow's installment on breathing.

EXERCISE NO. 6.

Constipation—Strengthening and reducing Abdomen position.

Lying down hands under hips legs straight.

MOVEMENT

Raise left leg to right angles to the body, then bring it down to floor. Repeat with right leg. Alternate until slightly fatigued. Breathe deeply and evenly.

REMARKS

This exercise may be varied and made more strenuous by bringing up one leg as the other is coming down, keeping the feet off the floor during the exercise.

QUESTIONS

J. B.—I wish to go in for Physical development what games would help me to increase my measurements the quickest way?

Mr. J. B. I guess by your letter that you wish information that will help you to get development quick. There is no quick way, it takes time and patience plus hard work. There are some ways that are quicker than others and I would suggest that you get a reliable instructor, and go slow. Let me hear how you are getting along.

MRS. W. W.—Can weak heart be cured by exercise and what exercise can I take that will help me?

ANSWER—Yes, it can be cured, but the best

PLANES VISIT 'QUAKE ZONE'

Photographs of the Santa Barbara earthquake were rushed to the bay district yesterday for Oakland and San Francisco newspapers, by means of airplanes piloted by aviators who participated in the air congress here Sunday. Dr. Sterling Bunnell of San Francisco, Captain E. W. Farrow, who won one of the races in the air congress, and other well known aviators made the trip yesterday morning.

Local Firemen, Oakland Police Rally 21-20 Game

A veritable field day was celebrated by the Oakland Police men and the Richmond Firemen in their alleged ball game at First street, Sunday, which turned out to be one of the wildest slugfests ever witnessed within the confines of the fair city. One thing can be said for the game however, it was tight. Score 21 to 20 in favor of Oakland.

Pete Martin was pounded from the box in a half dozen bitter innings. He was relieved by Jiggs Wright, who did a little better. Merriman caught for Martin, but was unable to hold onto Jiggs' slants, so was replaced by Grady.

Are You Tired, Achy And All Run Down?

This Richmond Resident Tells You How to Get Well.

Tired all the time? Lame, stiff and achy? Tortured with nagging backache? Knife-like twinges when you stoop or lift?

Miserable with headaches, dizzy spells and bladder irregularities? All are signs of kidney sickness! Use Doan's Pills—a stimulant and urtic to the kidneys.

Here's Richmond testimony:

Mrs. Sarah J. Kinney, 915 Seventh St., says: "The least cold I took always settled on my kidneys and I had backache that made me miserable. I became run down and often had to neglect my household work. My kidneys acted irregularly and annoyed me. Doan's Pills, however, which I procured at Lane's Drug Store soon relieved me of these attacks and strengthened my back."

Mrs. Kinney is only one of many Richmond people who have gratefully endorsed Doan's Pills. If your back aches—if your kidneys bother you, don't simply ask for kidney remedy—ask distinctly for DOANS PILLS, the same that Mrs. Kinney had—the remedy backed by home testimony. 60 cents at all dealers. ## An Application for RATE ADJUSTMENT

KEY SYSTEM Transit Company has filed with the State Railroad Commission an application for a readjustment of its passenger and freight rates.

You, no less than we, are vitally interested in this problem. We ask your assistance and counsel in its solution. Copies of our petition will be sent on request and we urge you to get one and study it.

The application is based mainly on the following facts:

- 1 A Six Million Dollar Improvement Program is necessary to meet the needs of the Eastbay Communities, in addition to the large investment of more than one million dollars last year in improvements and betterments.
- 2 A deficit of One Million Four Hundred Thousand Dollars under a fair return upon a conservative valuation of the Company's Properties was experienced last year, and is proportionately continuing.
- 3 A still greater loss is in prospect for the present year, due to increased service demanded by the public, to the cost of obtaining new capital for further extensions and to increasing costs of operation.

In considering how the necessary adjustments shall be made, we propose this common ground, on which all of us can agree:—

Good Transportation Service, enlarging to meet increasing demands, is fundamental and basic to our civic and industrial development.

Its necessary cost must be met by adequate revenues.

We invite the cooperation of all Eastbay citizens, residents, governmental and civic organizations in solving this problem.

TUBERCULOSIS OVERCOME

Oakland, Calif. April 23, 1925.
For about three years I suffered from a bad cough and sore chest. I tried many doctors, all of whom pronounced my case Tuberculosis. My spirit was examined and showed tubercular germs. As I found no improvement from any of the treatments that I took, I decided to give the FONG WAN HERBS a test, as a last resort. After having drunk the herbs for four months, I was a well woman and had gained in weight. A year has elapsed since I began to take the FONG WAN HERBS on April 16, 1924. But today I am still well and have no sign of my former complaints. (Signed) MRS. A. ACKERMAN, Fort Bragg, Calif. Box 202

WHY I CAME TO RICHMOND

Editor's Note: This is one of a series of articles by prominent Richmond business men giving a brief account of their business careers and reasons why they chose Richmond as the field of their business endeavors.

By BEN MALIK
Richmond Clothier.

I came to Richmond in 1915 during the Exposition year because I wanted to start business in a town where there seemed to be a chance of development. Richmond offered this opportunity. I had been located in Oakland previous to this but felt that Richmond possibilities were greater.

I started a fruit market here that proved a definite success. In 1920 I sold my fruit market, planning to go into the clothing business. I was not decided as to exactly where I should locate a business of this nature. Richmond being pretty well stocked with dealers in clothing at the time. My friends, however, insisted that I remain in Richmond, claiming that this district offered better opportunities than any other on the coast provided that materials of good value were placed on the market.

Nor were they mistaken in this estimation. My new enterprise met with instant success. My old friends who had patronized me in my former trade now bought of me at my new location. Not only that, but a good sized buying public proved ready to accept my goods. The fact that I am still in business after five years of experience in this trade probably best attests to my success. If I had not satisfied the public my business would not have thrived and I would not have been able to maintain one of the main commercial locations in the city of Richmond.

I have no doubt as to the industrial future of Richmond. I have no doubt as to the fact that the buying public will continue to prove more than satisfactory. Allow me to express my appreciation of the buying public. They are of a higher average than other people around the bay. Being well and regularly paid they spend regularly and freely. They are not "bargain hunters." They are satisfied with receiving a good amount of good quality merchandise for a fair amount of money.

Seems to us that here's where the finest and most durable equipment would be the most economical . . . and lately we've had an opportunity to prove it. We converted several fleet owners from this old notion to Diamond Heavy Service Cords . . . and they're certainly glad we did.

STUNTS, RACES
MARK CLOSE OF

With about forty planes participating, and with 15,000 persons—the largest number ever to witness any event in Richmond—in attendance, the army, navy, marine and commercial fliers struggled for supremacy of the air at the Richmond Air Congress on Sunday, the last day of the air meet. The Richmond mounted police were assisted in handling the throngs by mounted San Francisco police.

Making the two laps of 20 miles over the circular course in 17 minutes and 20 seconds, Red Williams of Menlow Park, in a Canadian plane was adjudged the winner.

Captain E. W. Farrow, flying a Hisso Jenny, under a handicap, took a speed prize of three laps in 18 minutes, 20 seconds. Under the handicap time, Chris Meyling, of Fresno, in an OX5 Jenny, was second. The fastest time of any ship in the meet was made by a Bristol plain, piloted by Jimmy Angel, of the A. P. Allinio Aircraft corporation. The 18 miles was made in 8 minutes, 53 seconds.

An OX5 Jenny, carrying Frank Schultz, of the San Joaquin Valley Aeronautical association, took the race from Fresno, with both the fastest time and the handicap.

One of the thrillers of the day was the dead stick landing, in which the motors were shut off 1000 feet from the ground, and the planes dropped lightly to the field, both wheels and tail touching the ground at the same time. Frank Schultz won the contest, gliding within 100 feet of the mark, while Art Starbuck was second with 300 feet.

The Navy planes staged a stunt flying exhibition during the afternoon. Participating in the exhibition were: Lieut. B. H. Wyatt in an SDW torpedo plane; Lieut. Mymann in a TS pursuit plane, and Lieut. Mies in a Voight. Captain E. W. Farrow also participated in stunt flying.

When the motor went dead at an elevation of about 50 feet, a plane of Lieut. Dowling, carrying Sergeant Faxon as an observer, both of the 216th squadron, went into a nose dive and crashed to the field. Both fliers escaped injury.

Battery B, 14th artillery, California National Guard and companies B and D of the 159th Infantry, California National Guard, participated in a sham battle and attack on a trench by army and navy bombing planes, aided by artillery, that proved to be one of the spectacular attractions of the day.

A demonstration of the bombers, cruisers, scouts, and observing planes was given by eight navy planes, under direction of Lieut. Ben H. Wyatt of the San Diego air station. Wyatt had a huge silver bombing plane of the same type as used by the around-the-world fliers.

After arriving here from Santa Rosa, Wontella LaPierre, a member of the "Papa's Baby" company that appeared at the California theatre here, sang during the afternoon program. Mother Tuck, of the "Hangers" in Berkeley, known to every flier in

West Side Safety
Zones on Streets
Ordered Painted

White lines and circles as markers will be painted on the west side streets instead of the traffic buttons requested of the city council by the West Side Progressive association, according to action taken by the city council last night. City Engineer E. A. Hoffman was directed to see that the safety zones and markers are properly painted on the street pavements.

The association had requested buttons at the intersections of Washington and Richmond, and Richmond and Standard avenues. Councilman Scott favored painting white lines instead and Councilman Garrard told of how ludicrous the Shrine parade in Los Angeles looked when shown bumping over traffic buttons in moving pictures.

City Engineer Hoffman suggested painting circles in white one and a half feet in diameter in the center of the streets instead of using the traffic buttons.

Removal of the old rails, now out of use, on Washington and Richmond avenues and the Park Place, on the west side, was referred to city Engineer Hoffman for one week. Arrangements are being made to have the rails taken up.

Richmond to Have
Part in Diamond
Jubilee Festival

Richmond will be fittingly represented in the Diamond Jubilee celebration to be held in San Francisco the first week in September, in commemoration of the State's 75 years of statehood, according to action taken by the Richmond city council last night.

In response to an invitation from the San Francisco jubilee committee of three composed of Councilman Barrard, Scott, and Black was appointed by Mayor Fiske to act in conjunction with the Richmond Chamber of Commerce in planning a worthwhile participation.

Garrard said it would be the biggest celebration since the world's fair of 1915, would include two holidays, Labor Day on the first Monday in September and Admission Day on the Wednesday following, and as it would be a big week Richmond should have adequate representation.

On motion of Councilman Lane the city clerk, A. C. Feris, was directed to respond to the invitation and inform the committee of the action taken.

Sentence To Jail
Follows Stabbing

MARTINEZ, June 27. (Special).—Frank Crosby, 39, Oakland barber, was brought to the county jail from Richmond last night by Constable A. A. Alstrom, to serve a six months sentence on a vagrancy charge. Crosby was arrested in Richmond after Mrs. Minnie Mora was found with a severe knife wound in her back. Crosby, at Mrs. Mora's home at the time, was taken into custody, but Mrs. Mora declared she had stabbed herself in an effort to end her life. Crosby was arrested and pleaded guilty to a vagrancy charge. The woman was brought to the hospital here.

The state, was presented with a gift by Mayor Hoss Powell and Lieut. B. H. Wyatt of the San Diego station.

JOHNSTON TELLS OF SUCCESS OF
AVIATION MEET

Thanks to the people of Richmond for their cooperation in making the air congress here Saturday and Sunday the success that it was, was expressed by H. A. Johnston, president of the Richmond Chamber of Commerce yesterday, as follows:

TO THE PEOPLE OF RICHMOND: We feel you should know who are responsible for the successful staging of the Richmond Air Meet Saturday and Sunday, which was probably the biggest event of its kind ever held on the Pacific coast.

At one time Sunday afternoon there were more than 5,000 automobiles parked adjacent to the air field and not less than 15,000 people within the enclosures of the field.

The great task of handling these huge crowds was in the hands of a small number of public-spirited men and women, members of the Chamber of Commerce who wanted to help out.

It is probable that some will be overlooked, but our thanks and appreciation go to them all.

TICKETS AND TRAFFIC

The ticket sales were, under the direction of A. L. Paulson; members of the Business and Professional Women's club with Mrs. Marie Macdonald Jensen chairman; handled the main gate ticket sales. We are indebted to Dr. Dose Powell, Mrs. Jensen, Mrs. Clara Hansen, Mrs. Elizabeth Campbell, Mrs. Helen Page, Mrs. Ruby Bryant, Mrs. Belle Bugmann, Mrs. Laura Record, Mrs. Laura Heady, Mrs. Helen Kingsbury, Mrs. Elizabeth Keefe and Mrs. Ruby Tully.

Men who handled the traffic and kept the huge crowds moving with a minimum of delay and friction, and also helped collect the money were: John A. Miller, L. A. Hewitt, Dan Nozella, George Morrison, Ike Lester, W. J. Richards, E. P. Vauscha, W. H. Siemon, J. R. Blake, H. B. Hollenbaugh, K. E. Gray, C. H. Weedin, J. W. Frank, Mr. Huyck, F. J. Pedro.

COUNTY COOPERATION.

Sheriff R. R. Veale sent a number of deputy sheriffs from Martinez, and District Attorney Tinning, sent almost the entire county traffic force. This was in addition to swarming in about twenty Richmond citizens as deputies by Sheriff Veale.

CITY OF RICHMOND

We are indebted to Chief of Police Dan Cox for sending every available man from the Richmond police force, and to Fire Chief William P. Cooper for having a chemical truck on the field the two days to guard against accidental fires.

Daniel J. O'Brien, chief of police of San Francisco showed the spirit of intercity cooperation in sending over M. J. Levy one of the ablest mounted officers on his traffic force, whose aid was invaluable in keeping the crowds in order on the field.

STANDARD OIL CO.

To the Standard Oil Company furnishing free aviation gasoline to all the aviators we extend especial gratitude. The Standard Oil company kept three tanks of gasoline on the field all through the meet, and aviators were supplied on request.

The presence of "Miss Eastbay", Miss Ernestine Clark as sponsor for the field is gratefully acknowledged, and her escort to and from Oakland, Mr. Wilbur S. Pierce, is also not forgotten.

ARMY MUSIC.

The music furnished by the 30th Infantry Band from the Presidio greatly added to the enjoyment of Saturday's program, and the public spirit of J. P. Strom, Thomas Motor Company, Curry Auto Sales Co., C. C. Kratzer, and Chas. Courtright, Richmond automobile dealers, in providing transportation for the band to and from the ferry is appreciated.

The public's feeling of safety was enhanced by the courtesy of Wilson & Kratzer in having their ambulance on the field throughout the day Sunday.

GRANDSTAND AND FIELD. The grandstand was well handled by Golden L. Downing, assisted by some of the Business and Professional Women's Club members. Mr. Downing also found time to handle the transportation of the fliers to and from the field, and to handle the business of them with the assistance of B. M. Bates, another member of the Air Field Committee.

Last and not least, the meet was originated, planned, and handled on the field by Frank B. Schumann, Publicity Manager of the Chamber of Commerce. It was no small task for one man to keep sixty airplanes busy for two days and it was well done.

IN CONCLUSION

This letter must close without mentioning the uniform good feeling that prevailed throughout the two days. In large crowds there usually is some unpleasant incidents, but such things were entirely lacking at the Richmond Air Meet. Not a single arrest was made for any reason, and the public's response to traffic regulations was remarkable.

We feel that this first Richmond Air Meet is epoch-making. Next year we shall have one bigger and better in every way.

The significant thing is that Richmond now has a great Air Port, which we will make into one of the best in the country.

The government fliers during the meet pronounced the field ideal in every respect.

If any who helped make the meet a success have been overlooked in this letter, we want to feel sure that we include them in spirit, and we hope they all feel amply

Soft Drink Stand
Permits Granted
By City Council

Permission to operate a soft drink stand at 628 Macdonald avenue was granted to Albert Hunt last night by the Richmond city council. Hunt is to open a small place at Seventh and Macdonald.

Application of Richard Kelling, of Berkeley, to operate a soft drink stand at 134 Macdonald avenue and also a pool and billiard parlor in connection, was granted with one councilman, W. L. Lane, voting against the application. Kelling is to re-open the place transferred to him by H. A. Rasplini, who is now in jail on charge of violation of the prohibition laws. Kelling was highly recommended by Chief of Police O'Keefe of Berkeley, who said Kelling had been a good citizen of that city for 20 years. The place is located on the corner of Second and Macdonald.
